*Students who qualify for the free and reduced lunch program pay $5 for the registration fee and $5 per test under state guidelines. Some families have students who may qualify for free and reduced lunch, even though the student does not use this service. These students are still eligible for the free and reduced costs of the tests. Please check the attached form.

*Students whose maximum family income is as follows qualify for a subsidy. Students will pay a $102 fee for registration and $69 per test. Families who qualify under the criteria must read and sign the financial form attached. Families may be requested to provide documentation.

Families who have the following number of family members and make less than the given amount:

- 2 people            $65,000
- 3 people            $70,000
- 4 people            $75,000
- 5 people            $80,000
- 6 people            $85,000

BIHS POLICIES ON EXAMS

Refund policy – Berkeley High School receives no refunds for students who opt out of IB testing after having registered. Therefore we do not give refunds those who choose not to test. It is expected that if you sign up for the exam, you will take it.

Requirements: Part of the final exam grade is based on specific in class assignments from your individual teacher. If you do not complete these specific assignments you are ineligible to receive a grade on the final exam.

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to be on time for IB exams. Thirty minutes after the start of the test no students will be seated for the exam. IB exams cannot be rescheduled for sporting events, family trips or academic competitions. Exams are scheduled for one, two, or three-day sessions. These dates are not negotiable or adjustable. Make sure that you have no conflicts before you register. Please refer to the attached exam schedule.

Illness Policy for Examinations: Only students with documented medical emergencies will be considered ill for an examination.

Academic Honesty: Please read the academic honesty policy. BIHS follows the IB guidelines and consequences as outlined.

Academic Standing: BIHS wants to support all students in taking the IB exams. If students receive a C in the class, we are asking that you please check in with your teacher.

Please carefully review your IB registration information on the previous sheets. By signing below you are acknowledging that the information is correct and you understand the BIHS policies on exams, and have read the academic honesty policy attached. You also acknowledge that registration will only take place with a submitted payment.
